1. Risk Warning

Investing in the financial market is associated with risks. This statement does not disclose all the possible risks and other significant aspects of trading derivatives, futures, and leveraged assets. Considering all possible risks, the Client should only use the Company's service if he/she understands the nature of the contracts and the professional relationship he/she is entering into. The Client hereby understands the extent of his/her exposure to the risks involved.

Trading derivatives, futures, currency pairs, and other leveraged assets may not be suitable for all types of traders. The Client is solely responsible for ensuring the aptness of his/her experience, objectives, financial resources, and other relevant factors for the Company's nature of business. The Client must take the foregoing aspects into thorough consideration before he/she avails the services of the Company.

The Client accepts all possible risks, including possible losses and damages upon his/her trading. The Company does not and cannot guarantee the profit or loss of the Client in any instrument he/she trades. There is a risk that large losses may occur in a brief period due to the speculative nature of the Company's business. All instruments are potentially volatile and rapid fluctuations can cause unpredictable events and results, none of which can be controlled by the Company or the Client.

The Client accepts that regardless of any information provided by the Company, the value of any financial asset or instrument may fluctuate which can affect his/her investment. The Company does not and cannot guarantee that the information on the previous performance of a certain asset can affect its current or future movement.

2. Execution and Margin

The Company can, but is not obligated to, provide the Client information such as trading signals and market news. The Client thereby agrees that implementing such information to his/her trades shall be upon his/her sole evaluation and decision.

If the margin capital of the Client is insufficient to hold ongoing trades, the Company can, but is not obligated to, contact and notify the Client through phone call or email regarding the matter. The Client may be required to deposit additional funds on a short notice. The Client thereby accepts that if he/she fails to act on the matter at the required time, he/she will be solely responsible for any loss or damage that may occur.

The Company stands on the right to regulate margin requirements for each of its products. This would possibly result in the Client's margin requirement growing. The Client may be obligated to pay additional funds to uphold the prevailing conditions.

For more information about the disclosure of risks, refer to 13.2. Risk Disclosure of the Company's Terms and Conditions.
